Northern Thailand Tour 9 Days 8 Nights

DAY 01 Chiang Mai Arrival / (Hotel)

00:00 After arriving at Chiang Mai Airport, you will be warmly welcomed and assisted with your transfer to the hotel. Once you have checked in, the remainder of the day is at your leisure, allowing you to relax and enjoy your stay in Chiang Mai and take this opportunity to explore the city at your own pace.

DAY 02 Chiang Mai Sightseeing: Wat Phra That Doi Suthep Temple / Wat Chedi Luang Temple / Sankampaeng and Borsang Handicraft Village (Hotel / Breakfast / Lunch)

Breakfast at the hotel.

08:30 AM Pick up from the hotel

Begin your exploration of Northern Thailand with a captivating journey through some of Chiang Mai's most remarkable and culturally significant landmarks. Your first destination is the iconic Wat Phra That Doi Suthep, a revered temple gracefully perched atop Doi Suthep Mountain. A symbol of profound spirituality and regarded as one of Northern Thailand's holiest sites, this temple dates back to 1383 and is believed to enshrine a sacred relic of Lord Buddha. Both locals and visitors seek blessings and tranquility here, making it an essential pilgrimage destination. To reach the temple, travelers may ascend an enchanting 306-step staircase flanked by magnificent serpent sculptures, or choose a more leisurely option by taking the funicular railway, which offers a comfortable and picturesque ride to the temple complex. The architectural brilliance of Wat Phra That Doi Suthep seamlessly blends Lanna and traditional Thai styles, adorned with intricate golden decorations, ornate wooden carvings, and striking pagodas. At its heart stands the revered chedi housing the sacred relic, said to radiate immense spiritual power. From the temple's vantage point, sweeping panoramic views of Chiang Mai city and its surrounding countryside unfold in breathtaking beauty.

Another must-visit temple is Wat Chedi Luang Worawihan, located at the heart of Chiang Mai city. As one of the largest and oldest temples in the province, it boasts a grand pagoda within its premises. Although the top of the pagoda suffered damage in a significant earthquake in 1545, its historical and cultural significance remains intact. Known by various names such as Rajakudakan Temple and Chotikaram Temple, it was constructed during the reign of King Prachao Sanmuangma, the seventh ruler of the Mungrai dynasty, with an estimated founding year of 1391. A symbol of Lanna identity, this ancient royal temple has undergone several restorations, now spanning an impressive 60 meters on each side. As one of Chiang Mai's paramount pagodas, Wat Chedi Luang Worawihan is a testament to the region's historical heritage.

Lunch at the restaurant.

Explore the San Kamphaeng district, renowned for its silk and cotton weaving. This area beckons tourists with its high-quality yet affordable silk and cotton products, making it the perfect place to find souvenirs for loved ones. Visitors can witness the art of silk weaving and silk raising at the local silk factory, immersing themselves in the craftsmanship of the region. Additionally, the district houses numerous factories and souvenir shops offering a diverse array of items, including wood carvings, silverware, lacquerware, leather goods, pottery, and cotton products. A visit to San Kamphaeng promises an enriching experience of Chiang Mai's artisanal heritage. After a fulfilling day of exploration, spend a peaceful night in Chiang Mai, savoring the memories of the enchanting temples and the vibrant cultural experiences encountered throughout the day.

DAY 03 Chiang Mai - Mae Hong Son: The Royal Agricultural Station Inthanon / Wachiratharn Waterfall / Grand Pagodas / Doi Inthanon National Park (Hotel / Breakfast / Lunch)

Breakfast at the hotel.

08:30 AM Pick up from the hotel

Departing from Chiang Mai, we embark on a journey to Mae Hong Son, a province celebrated for its natural beauty and rich cultural heritage. Along the way, we pass through Doi Inthanon National Park, a renowned destination admired for its breathtaking landscapes and cultural significance. Our first stop is the Royal Agricultural Station Inthanon, a research center dedicated to winter plants. Here, visitors are captivated by vibrant flower plots and a diverse array of vegetables and fruits. The station’s research spans multiple fields, including flowers, ornamental plants, vegetables, fruits, and highland fisheries. Importantly, it plays a vital role in transferring research outcomes to promote sustainable development, social upliftment, and forest watershed conservation. In addition, the station provides an essential source of income for hill tribe farmers living in nearby villages.

Witness the awe-inspiring Wachirathan Waterfall, nestled deep within Doi Inthanon National Park. This 70-meter-high cascade offers an unforgettable spectacle that captivates visitors year-round. The waterfall’s robust flow ensures its beauty in every season, but it’s during the rainy months that Wachirathan becomes truly magical. The increased water volume creates an even more dramatic cascade, with rainbows often arching through the misty air, giving the setting a fairytale-like charm. The powerful torrent crashing down the rugged cliff generates a cooling spray, providing a refreshing escape from the day’s warmth. Surrounded by a lush forest of towering trees, vibrant ferns, and a variety of tropical plants, the ambiance at Wachirathan is both tranquil and energizing. This living tapestry of greenery enhances the allure of the waterfall, making it an ideal spot for nature lovers and photographers alike. Whether you’re seeking a moment of serenity or a chance to marvel at nature’s grandeur, Wachirathan Waterfall is a must-visit destination on your journey through Doi Inthanon National Park.

Lunch at the restaurant.

Next, delve into the architectural marvels of the Twin Royal Pagodas, Napamethanidol and Napapolpumisiri. Perched atop a high hill within Doi Inthanon National Park, Phra Mahathat Napamethanidol was built to honor and pay homage to Phra Bat Somdet Phra Paraminthra Maha Bhumibol Adulyadej Rama IX during the auspicious celebration of His Majesty the King's 5th cycle birthday in 1987. Similarly, Phra Mahathat Naphaphonphumisiri was constructed as an offering to Her Majesty Queen Sirikit during the celebrations of Her Majesty the Queen's 5th cycle birthday in 1992. Surrounded by enchanting winter flower gardens and a variety of plants, these pagodas offer a serene and picturesque setting. With the cool weather prevailing year-round, this location provides breathtaking panoramic views, making it one of Chiang Mai's most captivating viewpoints.

Reach the summit of Doi Inthanon, the highest peak in Thailand, towering at an elevation of 2,565 meters above sea level. Part of the Thanon Thongchai Mountain range, which extends from the Himalayas across several countries, including Nepal, Bhutan, and Myanmar, this region boasts diverse climates and forests. As you journey through the area, you'll encounter rainforests, pine forests, and mixed forests at varying elevations. Upon reaching the peak, you'll be rewarded with awe-inspiring panoramic vistas. The perennially cool weather, stunning landscapes, and abundant forests make Doi Inthanon a magnet for visitors from all corners of the world. Conclude this wondrous day in Mae Hong Son, where you can relish the tranquility and immerse yourself in the charm of this picturesque region.

DAY 04 Mae Hong Son Sightseeing: Wat Phra That Doi Kong Mu Temple / Wat Chong Kham and Wat Chong Klang Temples / Ban Rak Thai Chinese Village / Ban Ruam Thai Shan Village (Pang Oung) / Su Tong Pe Bamboo Bridge (Hotel / Breakfast / Lunch)

Breakfast at the hotel.

08:30 AM Pick up from the hotel

Experience the enchanting wonders of Mae Hong Son with a visit to the revered Wat Phra That Doi Kong Mu temple, perched atop Kong Mu Mountain. This sacred site holds immense significance as the most revered place of worship in the region. Comprising two distinct pagodas, the larger one was constructed by Chong Thong Su a Shan merchant in 1860, while the smaller one was built by Phraya Singhanatracha the first ruler of Mae Hong Son in 1874. From the temple's hilltop location, bask in the breathtaking beauty of the surrounding town nestled amid mountains and valleys. Explore the splendid Wat Chong Kham and Wat Chong Klang temples, situated side by side next to the grand swamp. These ancient temples boast exquisite Burmese-style architecture and house the revered Buddha image (Luang Paw To). Wat Chong Klang is adorned with a plethora of Burmese wood carving dolls and intricate glass paintings depicting Buddhist history, leaving visitors in awe of their craftsmanship.

Stroll along the impressive Su Tong Pe Bridge, Thailand's longest bamboo bridge. Stretching over 500 meters, it connects Suan Tham Phusama Temple with Kung Mai Sak village. This locally crafted bamboo marvel offers panoramic views of rice paddies and serene canals, reflecting the ingenuity of local artisans. The bridge is particularly enchanting during the rainy season, when golden rice fields, lush greenery, and distant mountains create a breathtaking backdrop. Farmers working in the fields add a touch of rural charm, while the gentle sway of bamboo and rustling leaves create a tranquil ambiance. Each season brings its own beauty: earthy tones in the dry season and shimmering golden fields under clear skies in winter. No matter the time of year, the Su Tong Pae Bridge promises a unique and unforgettable experience.

Lunch at the restaurant.

Journey to the charming village of Ban Rak Thai. Nestled amidst stunning mountain scenery, this picturesque settlement reflects its rich Yunnanese heritage, brought by former members of the Chinese Nationalist 93rd Division who fled to this remote area in the 20th century. Their cultural traditions and culinary expertise have shaped the village's identity, creating a unique cultural enclave. Ban Rak Thai's idyllic setting, with serene lakes, vibrant foliage, and misty mountains, offers a truly magical atmosphere. Stroll through narrow lanes lined with traditional Yunnanese architecture, adorned with intricate carvings and colorful details. The daily rhythms of village life blend ancient traditions with modern touches, offering a glimpse into this cultural haven. A highlight of your visit is indulging in authentic Yunnanese cuisine. Renowned for its premium Chinese tea, the village invites you to savor a cup of this aromatic brew alongside other traditional delicacies, completing your immersion in its rich heritage.

Immerse yourself in the serene ambiance of Shan village, known as "Baan Ruam Thai" or Pang Oung. Tucked amidst rugged mountains, the village boasts a magnificent reservoir, often likened to "Switzerland in Thailand." Encircled by pine forests and colorful winter blooms, this idyllic landscape enjoys cool weather throughout the year. Witness the captivating sight of mist gently caressing the lake's surface during the morning chill, attracting tourists year-round. The allure of pine forests hugging the vast reservoir amidst the embrace of the mountain range and the kaleidoscope of flowers creates an irresistible magnetism that beckons visitors to this heavenly place. Conclude this unforgettable day in Mae Hong Son, where you can indulge in the tranquility of the night.

DAY 05 Mae Hong Son – Pai: Lahu Hill Trbe Village (Ban Jabo Village) / Tham Lod Cave / Doi Kiew Lom Viewpoint / Pai Walking Street (Hotel / Breakfast / Lunch)

Breakfast at the hotel.

08:30 AM Pick up from the hotel

Embark on a fascinating expedition from Mae Hong Son to Pang Mapha District, where you will discover the enchanting Ban Ja Bo Village, home to the Lahu hill tribe. Nestled on a ridge amidst breathtaking mountain vistas, the Lahu people originally hailed from Tibet and gradually migrated southward, eventually settling in the north of Thailand hundreds of years ago. Embracing a simple way of life, the Lahu prefer tranquil highland abodes and follow a spiritual doctrine, worshipping ancestral spirits. They thrive in agriculture, engaging in rice farming, corn cultivation, and animal husbandry, with hunting being one of their renowned skills. Despite cultural and linguistic differences, the Lahu warmly welcome foreign tourists, forging connections as good friends.

Lunch at the restaurant.

Explore the fascinating Tham Lod Cave, one of the region's most significant archaeological sites. This remarkable cave is traversed by a stream known as "Lang," which flows from one end to the other, carving out an intricate underground system adorned with impressive stalactites and stalagmites. Tham Lod Cave is also a historical treasure trove, containing ancient tools and utensils believed to date back over 2,000 years, offering a glimpse into early human history. For those seeking adventure, the cave offers the unique experience of bamboo rafting along the serene waters of the Lang stream. Floating through the cave, the cool, damp air and the echoing sounds of water create an atmosphere of mystery and wonder. Additionally, visitors can engage in short treks around the cave's perimeter, winding through lush greenery and rugged terrain, further enhancing the natural allure of this subterranean gem.

Continue your adventure by visiting the renowned Doi Kiew Lom Viewpoint, a scenic spot nestled between Pang Mapha and Pai districts. This breathtaking vantage point offers a mesmerizing panorama that changes with the seasons and the time of day. In the early morning, witness the awe-inspiring sunrise as the first rays of sunlight illuminate the horizon. A sea of mist blankets the valleys below, creating a truly magical scene. As the day progresses, the fog gradually dissipates, revealing a stunning vista of intricately lined mountains stretching as far as the eye can see. In the evening, the setting sun casts a warm, golden glow on the distant clouds, painting the sky with vibrant hues. The interplay of light and shadow creates a breathtaking spectacle that is sure to leave you mesmerized. Beyond the stunning views, Doi Kiew Lom Viewpoint is also adorned with a variety of colorful flowers that bloom throughout the year. This natural beauty, combined with the panoramic vistas, makes it a must-visit destination for nature lovers and photographers alike.

As the day winds down, immerse yourself in the vibrant atmosphere of Pai's walking street. Bustling with energy, the street is lined with stalls offering handmade crafts, clothing, jewelry, baskets, and unique souvenirs. A variety of Thai and international restaurants provide delicious options for every palate. Open from 5 PM to midnight, this lively marketplace is the perfect place to soak in the local culture and unwind after a day of exploration. Conclude your day with an overnight stay in Pai, reflecting on the stunning landscapes and rich cultural experiences that have made your journey through Mae Hong Son truly unforgettable.

DAY 06 Pai – Ban Tha Ton Village: Santichon Chinese Village / Yun Lai Viewpoint / Memorial Bridge / Pai Canyon / Pong Dueat Hot Spring / Wat Ban Den Temple / Wat Tha Ton (Hotel / Breakfast / Lunch)

Breakfast at the hotel.

08:30 AM Pick up from the hotel

Embark on an unforgettable journey to explore the diverse and captivating attractions of Pai and Chiang Mai. Start your adventure with a visit to Santichon Village, a charming enclave inhabited by Yunnan Chinese people who settled here long ago, preserving their unique culture, traditions, and lifestyle. As you wander through the village, marvel at the Yunnan Chinese-style houses, intricate decorations, and picturesque surroundings. The village offers a serene atmosphere that transports you back in time, allowing you to immerse yourself in its rich cultural heritage. Just a short distance away, head to the Yun Lai Viewpoint, which offers an awe-inspiring panorama of Pai city. The viewpoint is surrounded by lush paddy fields and a rugged mountain range, creating a breathtaking landscape. Whether you visit in winter or the rainy season, the area is often adorned with a mystical sea of mist, adding to the enchanting beauty of the scene. Capture the stunning views with your camera and cherish the memories of this magical place.

Venture to the Memorial Bridge, a poignant reminder of the Second World War and Japan's presence in Thailand. Though replaced by a modern bridge, this historic structure endures as a symbol of the past. Walking along the bridge transports you back to an era of great tumult and change. The Memorial Bridge stands as a testament to the resilience and strength of those who lived through the war. It is a place where tourists can pay tribute to the past, reflect on sacrifices made, and honor the memories of those who crossed it during wartime. More than just a historical site, it is a place of contemplation and remembrance. The stories of bravery and perseverance are etched into its very structure, fostering a profound connection to history. The surrounding area, with its peaceful ambiance and scenic views, further enhances the contemplative mood, making it perfect for quiet reflection. While visiting Pai District, the Memorial Bridge serves as a poignant reminder of the town's historical significance and the enduring spirit of its people.

Continue your exploration to Pai Canyon, also known as Kong Lan, a natural wonder shaped by soil subsidence and erosion caused by wind and rain. This has resulted in deep trenches and cliff-like formations that create a dramatic and rugged landscape. The canyon is surrounded by a mixed deciduous forest, and narrow, steep trails wind along the ridge, offering spectacular views of the surrounding villages and farms set against the backdrop of lofty mountains. Hiking through Pai Canyon is an adventure in itself, with each twist and turn revealing new perspectives of its dramatic beauty. Whether you're seeking a heart-pounding trek or a tranquil moment to take in the scenery, Pai Canyon is a destination that captivates the senses and inspires awe at every step.

After exploring Pai, make your way to Chiang Mai, where a wealth of cultural and natural attractions await. Start your journey in Mae Taeng District, Chiang Mai Province, with a visit to the mesmerizing Pong Dueat Hot Spring. This impressive geyser-like hot spring is accompanied by rising steam, creating a unique and captivating natural spectacle. The hot spring is surrounded by a dense jungle teeming with nature trails perfect for exploration. As you delve into the area's natural beauty, observe the diverse flora and fauna along the 1.5-kilometer circular route, complete with informative signboards that provide insights into the local ecosystem. The combination of the steaming hot springs and the lush greenery creates a serene and rejuvenating atmosphere, making it an ideal spot for relaxation and nature appreciation.

Lunch at the restaurant.

Next, visit the magnificent Wat Ban Den Temple, also known as Wat Den Sari Sri Muang Kaen, situated in Inthakin Sub-District. The temple's history is intertwined with its auspicious Bodhi tree, earning it the name "Sari Tree" and leading to its full name. Explore the temple's expansive grounds, featuring exquisite Lanna-style architecture in the form of a ubosot, tripitaka hall, drum tower, Inthakin pole sanctuary, Lanna cubicle golden teak, and pagoda, each resembling a work of art. The intricate details and craftsmanship of the temple structures reflect the rich cultural heritage of the region. As you wander through the temple grounds, take time to appreciate the serene ambiance and the spiritual significance of this sacred site.

Conclude your adventure in Ban Tha Ton Village, located near the Myanmar border in Mae Ai District, Chiang Mai Province. This charming village is surrounded by picturesque mountains and a tranquil river, creating a serene atmosphere with pleasant weather year-round. Immerse yourself in the diverse cultures and traditions of the multi-ethnic hill tribe people who call this area home. Explore Wat Tha Ton Temple, beautifully perched on a hillside with nine layered peaks housing sacred religious sites, including the revered "Phra Chedi Kaew." The temple complex is a stunning example of traditional Thai architecture and offers a peaceful retreat for visitors. From the temple's vantage points, enjoy breathtaking panoramas of Ban Tha Ton village and the picturesque Mae Ai District. The views from the temple are especially enchanting during sunrise and sunset when the landscape is bathed in golden light. Spend the night in Ban Tha Ton, cherishing the memories of an enriching and unforgettable journey. The village's tranquil setting and the warmth of its people provide a perfect end to your adventure, allowing you to reflect on the cultural and natural wonders you have experienced. Whether exploring the charming town of Pai or the serene landscapes of Ban Tha Ton, every moment of this journey will leave a lasting impression on your heart.

DAY 07 Ban Tha Ton - Chiang Rai: Kok River Cruise / Chiang Rai Night Bazaar (Hotel / Breakfast / Lunch)

08:30 AM Pick up from the hotel

Depart from Tha Ton Village and embark on a serene cruise along the Kok River, a scenic journey of approximately three to four hours that leads into the enchanting landscapes of Chiang Rai Province. The Kok River, one of Northern Thailand’s most significant waterways, nurtures the villages scattered along its lush, verdant shores. Originating in the border mountain range of Myanmar, the river meanders gracefully into Thai territory, passing through the charming Ban Tha Ton village. Continuing its course, it flows through the heart of Chiang Rai city before eventually joining the mighty Mekong River at Ban Sop Kok village in Chiang Saen District. Stretching a total length of 130 kilometers, the Kok River offers travelers a tranquil and picturesque setting, perfectly suited for a river cruise. As you drift along its gentle currents, you will be captivated by the stunning natural beauty unfolding on both sides of the banks. Lush greenery, rolling hills, and calm waters create a peaceful atmosphere, providing an ideal backdrop for relaxation and reflection. The river’s graceful curves reveal ever-changing vistas, each more captivating than the last, while vibrant flora, towering trees, and diverse wildlife along the banks further enhance the allure of this enchanting journey.

A highlight of the cruise is the opportunity to encounter various hill tribes residing in villages along the riverbanks. These communities, each with their own unique customs, traditions, and way of life, add a rich cultural dimension to your journey. As you pass by these villages, you'll gain insights into the daily lives of the hill tribe people, observing their traditional houses, clothing, and crafts. The cruises offer stops at select villages, where you can disembark and interact with the locals, learn about their culture, and perhaps even purchase handmade souvenirs. Whether you're a nature enthusiast, a culture seeker, or simply looking for a relaxing and scenic adventure, a cruise along the Kok River offers a perfect blend of all these elements. As you disembark at the end of your journey, you'll carry with you the memories of the breathtaking landscapes, the warm hospitality of the hill tribe communities, and the serene beauty of one of northern Thailand's most cherished waterways.

Lunch box will be provided.

As the sun sets, indulge in the vibrant atmosphere of the Chiang Rai Night Bazaar, a renowned shopping haven captivating both Thai and international visitors. The bazaar showcases an array of hill tribe handicrafts and local products, including clothing, accessories, and home furnishings, all reflecting the region's unique artistry and craftsmanship. Savor the delectable flavors of local cuisine and beverages, immersing yourself in the culinary delights of the region. The night comes alive with folk cultural activities adorned in Lanna aesthetics, providing a delightful experience for tourists. Additionally, performances by various hill tribes showcase their vibrant traditions and artistic expressions, creating a memorable and culturally rich evening in Chiang Rai. After an enchanting night, retire to your accommodations in Chiang Rai, cherishing the memories of a day filled with natural beauty, cultural encounters, and shopping delights.

DAY 08 Chiang Rai – Chiang Mai: Wat Rong Suea Ten temple (Blue Temple) / Singha Park Farm / Wat Rong Khun White Temple (Hotel / Breakfast / Lunch)

Breakfast at the hotel.

08:30 AM Pick up from the hotel

Embark from Chiang Rai city to return to Chiang Mai, stopping along the way to visit some of the region's most awe-inspiring attractions. Begin your journey with a visit to Wat Rong Suea Ten, commonly known as the Blue Temple. This architectural masterpiece, designed by local artist Puttha Kabkaew, captivates visitors with its vibrant blue and gold palette. The deep azure hues of the temple, symbolizing wisdom and the infinite, stand in stunning contrast to the intricate gold details, creating an otherworldly ambiance. As you approach, admire the vividly sculpted naga serpents that guard the entrance, their scales shimmering with multicolored hues. Inside, the vihara features meticulously detailed murals and houses the Phra Buddha Ratchamongkol Bodi Tri Lokanath, a radiant Buddha statue said to enshrine sacred relics. The serene atmosphere and artistic brilliance of Wat Rong Suea Ten offer both spiritual solace and aesthetic delight.

Next, venture to Singha Park Farm, nestled amidst rolling hills and a vast lake. Embark on a farm car journey through verdant oolong tea plantations and discover a fruit kingdom brimming with melons, strawberries, raspberries, and more. Wander through vegetable and herb gardens, their vibrant colors and fragrant aromas delighting your senses. Marvel at the stunning flower fields bursting with blooms, creating a visual symphony against the backdrop of the natural landscape. Encounter friendly African animals in their green pastures, and savor delicious farm-to-table cuisine that celebrates the bounty of the land. Let the peace and beauty of this haven rejuvenate your spirit.

Continue your journey to the renowned Wat Rong Khun Temple, famously known as the White Temple, an architectural masterpiece envisioned and built by the esteemed artist, Professor Chalermchai Kositpipat. Combining artistry with Lanna culture, the temple showcases intricate stucco patterns adorned with glass and large wall paintings. Its pure white chapel resembles a heavenly castle with contemporary religious architecture, and the bridge leading to the chapel features sculptures depicting religious precepts, exploring the themes of hell and heaven. Inside, the chapel dazzles with its silver mirror-patterned decor. The temple also houses art galleries and exquisite sculptures for visitors to admire and appreciate. Conclude your memorable journey and continue on to Chiang Mai. Upon arrival, transfer to your hotel and enjoy a restful overnight stay, cherishing the experiences of the day's exploration.
