Pick up from the hotel.

Begin your adventure by hopping on a long-tail boat for a delightful sightseeing tour along the picturesque Pai River. Revel in the refreshing breeze and immerse yourself in the beauty of nature while observing the simple lifestyle of the riverside inhabitants. One of the highlights of this trip is a visit to the enchanting Long-Necked Karen village, where the women proudly wear a single brass winding ring around their necks. Their adherence to a conservative tribal way of life has preserved their unique culture and traditions for generations.

Pay your respects at the revered Wat Phra That Doi Kong Mu temple, perched atop Kong Mu Mountain and considered the most sacred place of worship in Mae Hong Son. The temple comprises two pagodas of different sizes, constructed by "Chong Thong Su" in 1860 and "Phraya Singhanatracha" in 1874, respectively. From this elevated spot, marvel at the breathtaking natural panorama of the town surrounded by majestic mountains and valleys. Continue your temple exploration with visits to Wat Chong Kham and Wat Chong Klang, neighboring temples with splendid Burmese-style architecture housing the revered Buddha image, Luang Paw To. Inside Wat Chong Klang, you'll encounter an impressive display of Burmese wood carving dolls and magnificent glass paintings depicting Buddhist history.

Next, venture to the Su Tong Pae Bridge, an awe-inspiring bamboo structure that holds the title of Thailand's longest bamboo bridge. This incredible bridge links Suan Tham Phusama Temple and Kung Mai Sak village, traversing paddy fields and canals. The bridge serves as a vital passageway for monks and villagers and leaves an indelible impression on visitors with its classic charm, especially during the rainy season when the surrounding fields are lush green and the winter months when the golden grains shimmer.

Lunch at the restaurant.

Discover the fascinating Baan Rak Thai village, nestled near the Thailand-Myanmar border. Once a settlement for the 93rd division of the Chinese Nationalist "Kuomintang," the village offers stunning mountain views, picturesque lakes, and vibrant shrubbery. As you roam through the village, you'll come across green tea plantations winding gracefully along the mountainside. Delight your taste buds with delectable Yunnan cuisine and savor the renowned Chinese tea, regarded as the finest in Mae Hong Son province.

Find serenity in the tranquil Shan village, known as "Baan Ruam Thai" or Pang Oung. Resting amid rugged mountains, this village boasts a remarkable reservoir often dubbed "Switzerland in Thailand" for its spectacular scenery. Surrounded by pine forests and adorned with colorful winter flowers, the village's chilly climate remains pleasant throughout the year. Witness the ethereal beauty of the fog gently floating above the lake in the morning and the enchanting pine forest hugging the vast reservoir, making it a year-round destination for tourists seeking tranquility and natural splendor.

Conclude your remarkable journey in Mae Hong Son as you are transferred back to your hotel, cherishing the unforgettable memories of this enriching expedition.
