

Mae Hong Son Holidays

261 Lamphun Rd. Tambol Watket, Muang District, Chiang Mai 50000 Thailand

Tel. +66 647959678, +66 613109789, +66 629476368, +66 882614727

Email: contact@maehongsonholidays.com

Website: www.maehongsonholidays.com

Department of Tourism of Thailand license No. 22/00782

Family Package 7 Days 6 Nights

DAY 01 Chiang Mai Arrival / Chiang Mai Night Safari (Hotel / Lunch)

00:00 Upon your arrival at Chiang Mai Airport, our staff will warmly welcome you and assist with your transfer to the hotel, allowing you and your family to relax at your leisure before embarking on your evening exploration of Chiang Mai.

Lunch at the restaurant.

05:00 PM Pick up from the hotel.

Your day starts with a pick-up from your hotel in Chiang Mai. With anticipation and excitement, you embark on a journey to Chiang Mai Night Safari, situated approximately 12 kilometers outside the city. As you leave the urban hustle behind, the anticipation of encountering wildlife in their natural habitat builds up. Arriving at Chiang Mai Night Safari, you are greeted with a plethora of wildlife species waiting to be explored. The park is known for its captivating wildlife tours and nocturnal adventures. The experience is made safe and enjoyable for visitors through the provision of trams and other equipment to observe the animals without disturbing them. As the sun sets, you board one of the trams, and the nocturnal adventure begins. The darkness amplifies the thrill of the experience as you traverse through the park, witnessing the predator animals like lions and tigers in their element. The guide provides fascinating insights into the behavior and habits of these magnificent creatures, making the tour both educational and entertaining. After an unforgettable experience and a deep connection with the wildlife, it's time to head back to your hotel. The return journey allows you to reflect on the magical moments you just witnessed and cherish the memories of this unique wildlife expedition.

DAY 02 Chiang Mai Sightseeing: Fresh Local Market / Cooking Class / Bor Sang Umbrella village (Hotel / Breakfast / Lunch)

Breakfast at the hotel.

08:30 AM Pick up from the hotel.

As the sun rises on the second day of your family trip, you venture to a local fresh market in Chiang Mai to immerse yourselves in the vibrant Thai culinary culture. The market is a treasure trove of colors, flavors, and aromas, offering a vast array of fresh ingredients essential for the Thai dishes you will be learning to cook today. Your enthusiastic cooking teacher leads you through the market, explaining the significance of each ingredient and their benefits in Thai cuisine. You get to learn about the different herbs, spices, and vegetables used in traditional Thai dishes, gaining valuable insights into the country's rich culinary heritage. Excitement builds as you select and purchase the freshest ingredients for each type of Thai food you will be preparing. The teacher imparts wisdom on how to discern the best quality produce and how to incorporate them into your dishes back home.

With your baskets filled, you make your way to the Thai cooking school, where the adventure of flavors continues. You prepare all the ingredients under the watchful eye of the experienced teacher, ensuring that each step is done correctly to bring out the authentic taste of Thai cuisine. Armed with your own equipment and stoves, you dive into the cooking process, guided and supervised by the teacher at all times. The aroma of spices fills the air as you chop, stir, and simmer, and you can't help but feel a sense of accomplishment as the dishes come together beautifully. After the cooking session, it's time to savor the fruits of your labor. The family sits down together to enjoy the delightful feast of Thai dishes you've prepared. The experience of cooking and sharing the food strengthens the bond among family members and leaves everyone with a sense of pride and accomplishment.

Lunch at the cooking school

With your appetites satisfied, the adventure continues as you head to Bo Sang Umbrella Village. The village is renowned for its traditional handmade umbrellas, made from satin, cotton, and mulberry paper. The colorful and intricately designed umbrellas have garnered popularity among both locals and tourists. During your visit, you have the opportunity to witness the traditional umbrella production processes, from making mulberry paper to crafting paper lanterns. The artisans graciously share their skills, and you get to try your hand at drawing patterns on umbrellas, paper fans, and lanterns, letting your creativity flow. As the day draws to a close, you return to your accommodation in Chiang Mai, reflecting on the wonderful experiences you've had together as a family. The cultural immersion and shared adventures have made this trip a truly memorable one. Excited for what tomorrow holds, you settle in for another restful overnight stay in Chiang Mai, cherishing the memories made on this incredible journey.

DAY 03	Chiang Mai – Pai: Queen Sirikit Botanic Garden (Canopy Walkway) / Phoenix Adventure Park / Pai Walking Street (Hotel / Breakfast / Lunch)
--------	---

Breakfast at the hotel.

08:30 AM	Pick up from the hotel.
----------	-------------------------

On the third day of your family trip, you leave Chiang Mai behind and head to Mae Rim District for a day filled with nature and adventure. Your first stop is the Queen Sirikit Botanic Garden, a haven for plant enthusiasts and nature lovers alike. The garden is dedicated to conserving and gathering a wide variety of plants, categorized according to their genus, and grown in a way that closely mimics their natural habitat. As you stroll through the garden, you are greeted by a stunning display of plants from all around the world. The colors, scents, and textures of the flora create a mesmerizing tapestry that showcases the wonders of nature's diversity. To add to the excitement, you embark on the Sky Walk, a canopy walkway that stretches over 400 meters and stands over 20 meters high. Walking on the Sky Walk, you get a unique perspective of the forest and its inhabitants below, and some sections of the walkway even feature clear glass flooring for an adrenaline-pumping experience.

After immersing yourself in the tranquil beauty of the botanical garden, the adventure continues as you head to the Phoenix Adventure Park. Nestled high among the treetops, this park offers a thrilling array of challenges and activities designed to excite and delight the whole family. Whether you're gliding through the air on a zip-line, navigating the monkey bridge over a picturesque waterfall, or tackling any of the other exhilarating courses, every moment at Phoenix Adventure Park promises to push the boundaries of your fun and excitement. The park boasts a diverse range of activities, ensuring that every visitor can find an adventure that matches their thrill-seeking level. From adrenaline-pumping aerial challenges to more gentle treetop strolls, there's something for everyone to enjoy. Safety is paramount at Phoenix Adventure Park, with all activities conducted under the strictest safety protocols. State-of-the-art safety systems, imported from abroad, guarantee that your adventure is not only fun but also safe and secure. So, prepare yourself for an unforgettable day of adventure and excitement at Phoenix Adventure Park, where the treetops become your playground and every moment is a new opportunity to create lasting memories with your loved ones.

Lunch at the restaurant.

Continuing your journey, you head toward Pai district, a scenic drive along the historic World War II road. The road takes you through numerous sharp curves as it winds up and down the hill, offering breathtaking views of the picturesque mountains that surround the area. Upon reaching Pai, check in to your accommodation to rest before immersing yourself in the local lifestyle by exploring the lively walking street. The street comes alive in the evening, and you can leisurely walk through the bustling market filled with handmade products, clothing, jewelry, baskets, and a variety of souvenirs. The vibrant atmosphere invites you to try various Thai and international dishes from the many restaurants lining the street. The walking street remains open until midnight, allowing you to savor every moment of your time in Pai. After a day filled with adventure, nature, and local experiences, you retreat to your accommodation in Pai for a restful overnight stay, eagerly looking forward to the adventures that await the following day.

DAY 04 Pai – Mae Hong Son: Doi Kiew Lom Viewpoint / Tham Lod Cave / Lahu Hill Tribe Village (Hotel / Breakfast / Lunch)

Breakfast at the hotel.

08:30 AM Pick up from the hotel.

On the fourth day of your family trip, you begin your day by visiting Doi Kiew Lom Viewpoint, a scenic spot nestled between Pang Mapha and Pai districts. This stunning vantage point offers a mesmerizing panorama that changes with the seasons and the time of day. In the early morning, you can witness the awe-inspiring sunrise as the first rays of sunlight illuminate the horizon. A sea of mist blankets the valleys below, creating a truly magical scene. As the day progresses, the fog gradually dissipates, revealing a stunning vista of intricately lined mountains stretching as far as the eye can see. In the evening, the setting sun casts a warm, golden glow on the distant clouds, painting the sky with vibrant hues. The interplay of light and shadow creates a breathtaking spectacle that is sure to leave you mesmerized. Beyond the stunning views, Doi Kiew Lom Viewpoint is adorned with a variety of colorful flowers that bloom throughout the year. This natural beauty, combined with the panoramic vistas, makes it a must-visit destination for nature lovers alike.

From Doi Kiew Lom Viewpoint, you move on to Tham Lod Cave, a significant archaeological site. This impressive cave is traversed by a stream known as the "Lang," which flows continuously from one end of the cave to the other. The stream has carved out an intricate underground system adorned with impressive stalactites and stalagmites, creating a mesmerizing display of natural artistry. Tham Lod Cave is also a historical treasure trove, containing ancient tools and utensils believed to date back over 2,000 years. These artifacts offer a fascinating glimpse into the early human history of the region, making it a significant site for archaeologists and history buffs. Exploring Tham Lod Cave provides an opportunity to delve into both the natural and historical wonders of the area. For those seeking adventure, the cave offers the unique experience of bamboo rafting along the serene waters of the Lang stream. As you float quietly through the cave, the cool, damp air and the echoing sounds of water dripping from the stalactites create an atmosphere of mystery and wonder. This tranquil journey allows you to fully immerse yourself in the awe-inspiring surroundings of the cave. In addition to the bamboo rafting experience, Tham Lod Cave also invites visitors to engage in short trekking excursions around its perimeter. These treks offer a chance to witness the captivating landscapes that surround this subterranean gem. The trails wind through lush greenery and rugged terrain, providing a refreshing outdoor experience and further enhancing the natural allure of the cave.

Lunch at the restaurant.

Next, you visit Ban Ja Bo Village, home to the Lahu hill tribe. The Lahu people have an intriguing history, originally originating from Tibet and later migrating to different regions over the centuries, eventually settling in the north of Thailand. Their village is perched on a ridge surrounded by the stunning beauty of mountain scenery. The Lahu people have a simple way of life, preferring to build their villages on high land and valuing a peaceful and spiritual existence. Agriculture, particularly rice farming and corn planting, forms their main occupation, alongside raising animals for consumption. The Lahu are also known for their hunting skills. Welcoming and friendly, the Lahu tribe adapts well to visitors, even those from different cultures and languages. As you explore the village, you are greeted warmly, and you get the opportunity to witness their traditional customs and way of life. Continuing your journey, you head to Mae Hong Son, where you'll transfer to your hotel and stay overnight. Mae Hong Son offers more wonders to explore, and the experiences from today have surely deepened your appreciation for the rich cultural and natural diversity of Thailand. Excited for what awaits on the next leg of your journey, you settle in for a restful night in Mae Hong Son.

DAY 05	Mae Hong Son Sightseeing: Wat Phra That Doi Kong Mu Temple / Wat Chong Kham and Wat Chong Klang Temples / Su Tong Pe Bamboo Bridge / Ban Rak Thai Chinese Village / Ban Ruam Thai Shan Village (Pang Oung) (Hotel / Breakfast / Lunch)
--------	--

Breakfast at the hotel.

08:30 AM	Pick up from the hotel.
----------	-------------------------

On the fifth day of your family trip, you start with a visit to Wat Phra That Doi Kong Mu temple, an essential place of worship in Mae Hong Son. Perched on top of Kong Mu Mountain, the temple comprises two pagodas of different sizes. The larger one was built by Chong Thong Su, a Shan merchant in 1860, while the smaller one was constructed by Phraya Singhanatracha the first ruler of Mae Hong Son, in 1874. The hilltop location offers panoramic views of the town, surrounded by the enchanting beauty of mountains and valleys. Next, you explore two more temples in the area, Wat Chong Kham, and Wat Chong Klang, both located near the big swamp. These temples feature stunning Burmese-style architecture and house the revered Buddha image, Luang Paw To. Wat Chong Klang boasts an impressive display of Burmese wood carving dolls and large glass paintings depicting Buddhist history.

Continuing your journey, you will visit the Su Tong Pe Bridge, Thailand's longest bamboo bridge. Stretching over 500 meters, it connects Suan Tham Phusama Temple with Kung Mai Sak Village. This locally crafted bamboo marvel offers panoramic views of rice paddies and serene canals, reflecting the ingenuity of local artisans. The bridge is particularly enchanting during the rainy season, when golden rice fields, lush greenery, and distant mountains create a breathtaking backdrop. Farmers working in the fields add a touch of rural charm, while the gentle sway of bamboo and rustling leaves create a tranquil ambiance. Each season brings its own beauty: earthy tones in the dry season and shimmering golden fields under clear skies in winter. No matter the time of year, the Su Tong Pe Bridge promises a unique and unforgettable experience.

From the Su Tong Pe Bridge, head to Baan Rak Thai, also known as Mae Aw, a captivating village with a distinct blend of Thai and Chinese cultures. This hidden paradise is situated near the border with Myanmar, surrounded by lush tea plantations and misty hills, creating a serene and tranquil atmosphere. Originally settled by Kuomintang Chinese soldiers and their families who fled to Thailand in the late 1940s, Baan Rak Thai boasts a fascinating history. Today, it has become a charming hillside community known for its tea cultivation, producing high-quality oolong tea enjoyed by locals and tourists alike. Travelers visiting Baan Rak Thai can explore the emerald-green tea plantations, stroll along the village's narrow pathways, and savor traditional Chinese-inspired dishes in local eateries. The area's cooler climate makes it an ideal spot for relaxation, and visitors can enjoy the stunning reflections of the surrounding hills on the tranquil lake at sunrise and sunset.

Lunch at the restaurant.

As the day unfolds, you venture to Shan village, also known as Baan Ruam Thai or Pang Oung. This serene village is nestled in a rugged mountain range and features a large lake that has earned the nickname "Switzerland in Thailand" due to its breathtaking scenery. Surrounded by pine forests and colorful winter flowers, the village experiences cool weather throughout the year. The sight of the pine forest embracing the spacious reservoir, with fog floating above the lake in the morning, is truly captivating. This peaceful and idyllic atmosphere, combined with the allure of the surrounding nature, makes Baan Ruam Thai a destination that captivates visitors all year round. With memories of the day's enchanting experiences etched in your heart, you return to your accommodation in Mae Hong Son, where you will stay another night. The journey has been filled with cultural discoveries, natural wonders, and heartwarming encounters, creating a perfect family adventure in Northern Thailand.

DAY 06	Mae Hong Son – Chiang Mai: Doi Inthanon National Park / Royal Pagodas / The Royal Agricultural Station Inthanon / Wachiratharn Waterfall (Hotel / Breakfast / Lunch)
--------	--

Breakfast at the hotel.

08:00 AM	Pick up from the hotel.
----------	-------------------------

On the sixth day of your family trip, you bid farewell to Mae Hong Son and embark on a picturesque journey to Doi Inthanon National Park. As you traverse through numerous sharp curves up and down the hills, you are treated to awe-inspiring views of the beautiful mountains that surround the region. Reaching Doi Inthanon, you stand atop the highest peak in Thailand, soaring at an impressive altitude of 2,565 meters above sea level. Doi Inthanon is part of the Thanon Thongchai Mountain range, which stretches from the Himalayas, encompassing countries such as Nepal, Bhutan, and Myanmar. The diversity of climate and forest in the area allows you to experience rainforests, pine forests, and mixed forests at varying elevations. At the peak, you are rewarded with a breathtaking panoramic view that showcases the beauty of the surrounding landscape. The cool weather, picturesque scenery, and lush forests make Doi Inthanon a charming destination that attracts visitors from all over the world.

Next, visit the Twin Royal Pagodas, Napamethanidol and Napapolpumisiri, situated atop a high hill in Doi Inthanon National Park. Phra Mahathat Napamethanidol was built to honor and pay homage to Phra Bat Somdet Phra Paraminthra Maha Bhumibol Adulyadej Rama IX during the auspicious celebration of His Majesty the King's 5th cycle birthday in 1987. Similarly, Phra Mahathat Naphaphonphumisiri was constructed as an offering to Her Majesty Queen Sirikit during the celebrations of Her Majesty the Queen's 5th cycle birthday in 1992. The surroundings of the pagodas are adorned with winter flower gardens and various plants, adding to the beauty of the area. The cool weather prevailing throughout the year provides a comfortable ambiance, and the panoramic views from this vantage point are considered some of the most beautiful in Chiang Mai.

Lunch at the restaurant.

Continuing your exploration, you visit Wachirathan Waterfall, one of Thailand's most awe-inspiring natural wonders. Nestled in the heart of Doi Inthanon National Park, this 70-meter-high cascade presents a mesmerizing spectacle that never fails to enchant its visitors. Flowing robustly year-round, the waterfall guarantees a dazzling display regardless of the season. During the rainy months, the scene becomes even more magical as vibrant rainbows often appear, arcing across the mist-filled air and adding a fairytale-like charm to the setting. The water tumbles dramatically down a rugged cliff, creating a refreshing mist that cools the surrounding air and provides a welcome retreat on warm days. The ambiance around Wachirathan is both serene and invigorating, enhanced by the lush, green forest that envelops the area. Towering trees, vibrant ferns, and an array of tropical plants form a living tapestry of natural beauty, completing this enchanting experience.

Your journey continues to the Royal Agricultural Station Inthanon, a research station for winter plants. The station conducts research on flowers, ornamental plants, vegetables, fruits, and highland fisheries. It also plays a crucial role in promoting fundamental development, social development, and forest watershed conservation. The station contributes to the income generation of hill tribe farmers' families residing in the surrounding villages. As the day draws to a close, you return to Chiang Mai, the vibrant city that has offered you an incredible array of experiences. You transfer to your hotel and stay overnight, reflecting on the wonders of nature and cultural richness you've encountered throughout this amazing family trip. Tomorrow marks the end of your journey, and you carry with you cherished memories that will last a lifetime.

Breakfast at the hotel.

00:00

Your journey in northern Thailand has come to an end; it is now time to bid farewell. Our team will transfer you and your family to Chiang Mai Airport for a safe journey home, and this is the end of our services.

Prices:

- 2 Persons 37,050 ฿
- 3 Persons 32,300 ฿
- 4 Persons 26,000 ฿
- 5 Persons up 25,250 ฿
- Price per person / In Thai baht / Private tour

Included:

- English Speaking Guide
- Travel Accident insurance
- Admission fees as tour mentioned
- Tour and transfer as private air-con vehicle
- Accommodations as mentioned based on twin sharing (6 Nights)
- Meals as mentioned in the program (6 Breakfasts / 6 Lunches)

Excluded:

- Air Fare
- Personal expenses
- Meals are not mentioned in the program

Tour Difficulty Levels:

- Easy / Moderate / Challenging

Hotels
Date	City	Hotel Name	Room Type
Day 1-2	Chiang Mai	Duangtawan Hotel Chiang Mai	Deluxe
Day 3	Pai	The Quarter Hotel	Deluxe
Day 4-5	Mae Hong Son	The Imperial Mae Hong Son Resort	Deluxe
Day 6	Chiang Mai	Duangtawan Hotel Chiang Mai	Deluxe

No Hidden Costs:

Aside from personal expenses and dinner, you will not incur any additional costs. We are committed to providing complete transparency and ensuring that the prices and services listed on our website or in the quotation letter are the final and all-inclusive prices for our valued customers. You can rest assured that there will be no hidden or extra charges added to the quoted price. Our goal is to offer a seamless and hassle-free booking experience, and we understand the importance of providing accurate and upfront pricing to our customers. We take pride in our integrity and customer-centric approach, and we want you to feel confident and assured when booking with us. Should you have any questions or concerns about the pricing or services offered, our dedicated team is always available to address any queries and provide you with the necessary information.